Available online at www.sciencedirect.com

SCIENCE DIRECT

Journal of Aging Studies 19 (2005) I–III

Journal of AGING STUDIES

www.elsevier.com/locate/jaging

Journal of Aging Studies Article Index/Volume 19

Please note: numbers in parenthesis indicate issue number in Volume 19

ARTICLES

Author/Title

A

A home of their own. Women's boundary work in LAT-relationships (S.G. Karlsson and K. Borell), 73–84 (1)

Active aging—spunky survivorship? Discourses and experiences of the years beyond breast cancer (C. Sinding and R. Gray), 147–161 (2)

Adult daughter aging mother relationship over the life cycle: The Turkish case (S.A. Mottram and N. Hortaçsu), 471–488 (4)

Age and relative importance of major life domains (C.-m. Hsieh), 503–512 (4)

Alcohol in life story interviews with Finnish people aged 90 or over: Stories of gendered morality (E. Tolvanen and M. Jylhä), 419–435 (4)

"Am I doing it right?": Older widows as interview participants in qualitative research (D.K. van den Hoonaard), 393–406 (3)

B

Barrett, A.E., Gendered experiences in midlife: Implications for age identity, 163–183 (2)

Borglin, G., Edberg, A.-K. and Rahm Hallberg, I., The experience of quality of life among older people, 201–220 (2)

C

Carson, A.J., "What brings you here today?" The role of self-assessment in help-seeking for age-related hearing loss, 185–200 (2)

Constructing family relationships: Intimacy, harmony and social value in accounts of sheltered retirement community residents (A. Williams and J. Guendouzi), 453–470 (4)

D

De Medeiros, K., The complementary self: Multiple perspectives on the aging person, 1–13 (1)

Dunér, A. and Nordström, M., Intentions and strategies among elderly people: Coping in everyday life, 437–451 (4)

E

Exploring the politics and policy surrounding senior center gambling activities (J. Higgins), 85–107 (1)

F

Financial planning for later life: Subjective understandings of catalysts and constraints (C.L. Kemp, C.J. Rosenthal and M. Denton), 273–290 (3)

0890-4065/$ - see front matter © 2005 Elevier Inc. All rights reserved.
doi:10.1016/S0890-4065(05)00062-9

First signs and normalizations: Caregiver routes to the diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease (A.C. Krull), 407–417 (4)

G

Gender and intimate caregiving for the elderly in Hong Kong (O.M.H. Wong), 375–391 (3)
Gendered experiences in midlife: Implications for age identity (A.E. Barrett), 163–183 (2)
Gendered stories of parental caregiving among siblings (A. Hequembourg and S. Brallier), 53–71 (1)
Grenier, A.M., The contextual and social locations of older women's experiences of disability and decline, 131–146 (2)

H

Hammarström, G., The construct of intergenerational solidarity in a lineage perspective: A discussion on underlying theoretical assumptions, 33–51 (1)
Hequembourg, A. and Brallier, S., Gendered stories of parental caregiving among siblings, 53–71 (1)
Higgins, J., Exploring the politics and policy surrounding senior center gambling activities, 85–107 (1)
Hsieh, C.-m., Age and relative importance of major life domains, 503–512 (4)
Hunter, E.G. and Rowles, G.D., Leaving a legacy: Toward a typology, 327–347 (3)

I

Intentions and strategies among elderly people: Coping in everyday life (A. Dunér and M. Nordström), 437–451 (4)
Intergenerational and community responsibility: Race uplift work in the retirement activities of professional African American women (K.F. Slevin), 309–326 (3)

J

Jönson, H., Social democratic aging in the People's Home of Sweden, 291–308 (3)

K

Karlsson, S.G. and Borell, K., A home of their own. Women's boundary work in LAT-relationships, 73–84 (1)
Keith, P.M., Nursing home administrators' views of volunteers' work in an ombudsman program, 513–520 (4)
Kemp, C.L., Rosenthal, C.J. and Denton, M., Financial planning for later life: Subjective understandings of catalysts and constraints, 273–290 (3)
Krull, A.C., First signs and normalizations: Caregiver routes to the diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease, 407–417 (4)

L

Leaving a legacy: Toward a typology (E.G. Hunter and G.D. Rowles), 327–347 (3)
Leibing, A., The old lady from Ipanema: Changing notions of old age in Brazil, 15–31 (1)
Lowis, M.J., Edwards, A.C., Roe, C.A., Jewell, A.J., Jackson, M.I. and Tidmarsh, W.M., The role of religion in mediating the transition to residential care, 349–362 (3)

M

McHugh, K.E. and Larson-Keagy, E.M., These white walls: The dialectic of retirement communities, 241–256 (2)
Mediation across generations: A tri-generational perspective (P. Werner, E. Buchbinder, A. Lowenstein and T. Livni), 489–502 (4)
Mottram, S.A. and Hortaçsu, N., Adult daughter aging mother relationship over the life cycle: The Turkish case, 471–488 (4)

N

Nakashima, M. and Canda, E.R., Positive dying and resiliency in later life: A qualitative study, 109–125 (1)
Nilsson, J., Grafström, M., Zaman, S. and Kabir, Z.N., Role and function: Aspects of quality of life of older people in rural Bangladesh, 363–374 (3)
Nursing home administrators' views of volunteers' work in an ombudsman program (P.M. Keith), 513–520 (4)

P

Positive dying and resiliency in later life: A qualitative study (M. Nakashima and E.R. Canda), 109–125 (1)

R

Role and function: Aspects of quality of life of older people in rural Bangladesh (J. Nilsson, M. Grafström, S. Zaman and Z.N. Kabir), 363–374 (3)

S

Sinding, C. and Gray, R., Active aging—spunky survivorship? Discourses and experiences of the years beyond breast cancer, 147–161 (2)

Slevin, K.F., Intergenerational and community responsibility: Race uplift work in the retirement activities of professional African American women, 309–326 (3)

Social democratic aging in the People's Home of Sweden (H. Jönson), 291–308 (3)

Social geography and continuity effects in immigrant women's narratives of negative interactions (P.M. Usita), 221–239 (2)

Social security reform: Does partial privatization make sense for China? (J.B. Williamson and C. Deitelbaum), 257–271 (2)

T

The contextual and social locations of older women's experiences of disability and decline (A.M. Grenier), 131–146 (2)

The construct of intergenerational solidarity in a lineage perspective: A discussion on underlying theoretical assumptions (G. Hammarström), 33–51 (1)

The complementary self: Multiple perspectives on the aging person (K. de Medeiros), 1–13 (1)

The experience of quality of life among older people (G. Borglin, A.-K. Edberg and I. Rahm Hallberg), 201–220 (2)

The old lady from Ipanema: Changing notions of old age in Brazil (A. Leibing), 15–31 (1)

The role of religion in mediating the transition to residential care (M.J. Lowis, A.C. Edwards, C.A. Roe, A.J. Jewell, M.I. Jackson and W.M. Tidmarsh), 349–362 (3)

These white walls: The dialectic of retirement communities (K.E. McHugh and E.M. Larson-Keagy), 241–256 (2)

Tolvanen, E. and Jylhä, M., Alcohol in life story interviews with Finnish people aged 90 or over: Stories of gendered morality, 419–435 (4)

U

Usita, P.M., Social geography and continuity effects in immigrant women's narratives of negative interactions, 221–239 (2)

V

Van den Hoonaard, D.K., "Am I doing it right?": Older widows as interview participants in qualitative research, 393–406 (3)

W

Werner, P., Buchbinder, E., Lowenstein, A. and Livni, T., Mediation across generations: A tri-generational perspective, 489–502 (4)

"What brings you here today?" The role of self-assessment in help-seeking for age-related hearing loss (A.J. Carson), 185–200 (2)

Williams, A. and Guendouzi, J., Constructing family relationships: Intimacy, harmony and social value in accounts of sheltered retirement community residents, 453–470 (4)

Williamson, J.B. and Deitelbaum, C., Social security reform: Does partial privatization make sense for China?, 257–271 (2)

Wong, O.M.H., Gender and intimate caregiving for the elderly in Hong Kong, 375–391 (3)